

THE CHURCHES
CONSERVATION TRUST

Presents a lecture by Sir Peter Hendy CBE, Commissioner of Transport for London

The next bus to Imber

On the road to saving St Giles' church

Join The Churches Conservation Trust and Sir Peter Hendy CBE for an illustrated lecture exploring how one man and his friends' mission to drive a Routemaster bus across Salisbury Plain led to more than they expected when they encountered a band of volunteers dedicated to saving St Giles' church in the fascinating 'ghost' village of Imber.

Thursday 29 May 2014

Tickets: £18, £15 for CCT members and volunteers
Includes a tour at 6.30pm of this fascinating 12th century church and crypt, built into the medieval walls of Bristol's Old City.
Doors and refreshments from 6pm, lecture commences at 7pm

St John the Baptist Church, Broad Street, Bristol, BS1 2EZ

Book by phone: 0800 206 1463

Book online: visitchurches.org.uk/BristolLecture

© The Churches Conservation Trust, registered charity no. 258612