Michael Jacobs - Talk & Book Signing

The Robber of Memories:

A River Journey Through Columbia

Thursday 21st March 2013 7pm

To celebrate Latin American culture in Bristol and part of the 'Semana Cultural', Stanfords has teamed up with the University of Bristol's Department of Hispanic, Portuguese and Latin American Studies for an evening of complimentary food, music, wine and a talk.

Author Michael Jacobs will discuss his latest book The Robber of Memories – A River Journey Through Colombia which recounts his journey along the entire length of the Magdalena River. His previous books include Andes and The Factory of Light: Life in an Andalucian Village which was shortlisted for the 2004 Thomas Cook prize.

Free event but pre-booking essential.
